*To the brothers of the Institute of Charity and the Sisters of Providence,

to the faithful of our parish communities,

to the former pupils of our Colleges,
to Rosminian and Rosminist scholars, and to all devotees of Blessed Antonio Rosmini,*

Dear brothers and sisters,

A greeting of peace and joy!

With this letter, I invite you to celebrate, together with the whole Rosminian family, the Novena to Blessed Antonio Rosmini, in preparation for his feast on July 1st.

I also invite you to dedicate the month of July to prayer for vocations in the Rosminian family: let us pray for the brothers and sisters who are discerning their vocation, for the young people who feel a vocational restlessness, and for the Rosminian men and women who are accompanying them.

In this second year of preparation for the Bicentenary of the Foundation, let us contemplate the vocation of the Father Founder, so that we may walk in our own vocation as consecrated men and women, religious brothers and sisters, lay men and women, ascribed members, and priests.

I am attaching to this letter the text of the Novena and the prayer for vocations, which we shall use during the month of July and in the various vocational and community initiatives throughout this year. Together, let us proclaim the Gospel of vocation, wherever we find ourselves working and bearing witness to our response to the vocation we have received.

I thank each one of you and every community from my heart, blessing you in prayer, for having responded to your vocation with generosity and commitment. The joy that each one experiences in living each day his vocation to religious life, to the priesthood, to family life, to mission for education, to the service of others, to the common good... is the joy of the Lord, and shall it be your strength!

Yours in the vocation,

P. Marco Tanghetti
Father General
